ADVERTISING AND MARKETING GUIDELINES

Overarching Guidelines: When engaging in any advertising or marketing activities, you must ensure any and all advertising and marketing materials are clear to the consumer and allow them to make educated decisions. In order to accomplish this, you must fully disclose all services provided in a transparent and easy to understand way. You must be in good standing with the officials and regulatory bodies that govern you and you must comply with all applicable laws and regulations. You must never engage in activities that are unfair, abusive or deceptive. You must protect every Consumer's personal data with comprehensive website security and ensure that any party with which you work, protect consumer personal data in the same manner. You must have a conspicuously placed privacy policy that clearly and accurately explains your data collection practices, as well as how you will use the consumer data. You must use advertising and marketing practices that promote the responsible use of short-term credit services. You may not engage in any false, misleading or deceptive advertising campaigns.

E-mail Marketing

1. Email Content Marketing Guidelines

- a. You will not make any statements that could be construed by the consumer to infer:
  - i. that we are offering or making the loan or are in any way involved in the loan process, including but not limited to underwriting or decisioning;
  - ii. that we have knowledge of or insight to the status of the loan, approval of the loan or loan amounts offered to a specific consumer by any lender;
  - iii. that we are in any way involved with the collection of the loan or have any knowledge about whether or not the consumer is accepted or denied for any loan product or service, by a lender.
- b. All advertising content should be developed and presented in accordance with applicable advertising laws, including but not limited to Section 5 of the FTC Act, the CAN-SPAM Act, the CFPB's prohibition of UDAAP, the TCPA, the TSR and OLA Best Practices. Additionally, all advertising should be developed and presented in a manner that clearly and accurately reflects the services being offered. The services are solely limited to providing the consumer the opportunity to submit his/her information to a prospective lender and requesting that the prospective lender review the consumer's information and make an independent decision about whether or not the prospective lender would like to purchase that consumer's information for the purpose of offering the consumer a loan related product or service.
- c. Email creatives should be clear to the consumer that:
  - i. the information submitted by the consumer may be shared with one or more lenders;
  - ii. the lenders will make an independent determination whether to purchase that consumer's information for the purpose of making a loan offer based on the information the consumer provides and the lenders own the lending criteria.
- d. All email creatives must be submitted for approval, including but not limited to: From Lines, Subject Lines, Content, and Imagery.

2. Email "From" Lines

- a. The "From" line should indicate that it is being sent by you and must not represent or appear that the email comes from us or from any of our brands.
- b. The "From," "To," "Reply-To," and routing information – including the originating domain name and email address – must be accurate and identify you as the person or business who initiated the message.
- c. Do not use a deceptive or misleading "from" line.
- d. If you utilize a "Friendly From," it should include your name or brand.

3. Email Unsubscribe / Opt-out Links; Physical Address

- a. All e-mail must include two unsubscribe / opt-out links (one to un-subscribe from the initiator's/your mailer lists and one to un-subscribe from just the advertised offer.)
- b. All e-mail must include the physical addresses of both the E-mail Marketer/you and the advertised offer.

*THE OPERATOR OF THIS WEB SITE IS NOT A LENDER, does not broker loans to lenders and does not make short-term cash loans or credit decisions. It is not an agent, representative or broker of any lender and does not endorse any lender or charge you for any service or product. This Web Site does not constitute an offer or solicitation to lend. This site allows you to submit the information you provide to a lender. However, providing your information on this Web Site does not mean that a lender will be able to work with you or that you will be approved for a short-term loan. Cash advances should only be used by you to solve immediate cash needs and should not be considered a long term solution. Not all lenders can provide up to $5,000. Cash transfer times may vary between lenders and may depend on your individual financial institution. For details, questions or concerns regarding your short-term cash loan, please contact your lender directly. Lender services may not be available to residents of all states based on individual lender requirements. This service is not available in New York or to New York borrowers due to interest rate limits under New York law.

** Credit checks, consumer credit reports and other personal data may be obtained by some lenders from Experian, Equifax, Trans Union or through alternative providers.
